BUFF AND BLUE LOSES TO WILLIAMS NINE

Varsity Puts Up Stiff Fight but Weakens at End—Gifford Pitches Well —Morris Scores Lone Tally

SCORE 5-1

Displaying an excellent brand of ball up to the seventh inning when the tide turned, the Buff and Blue baseball team lost to Williams on their diamond last Saturday by a 5-1 score. Gifford, who started in the box for Hamilton, held the Purple scoreless up to the seventh frame. Red Morris had previously brought in a run so that Coach Prettyman's men had the advantage. Monjo, however, who played left field and is also a varsity fullback, started the Williams scoring by clouting out a home-run. Gifford, who was playing his first game of the season, then began to weaken. Replaced by Warren, the team was unable to check the Williams impetus which netted another run in the seventh inning and three in the eighth.

The team presented a new combination in last Saturday's game and save for the last few innings it worked very well. Gifford, who was a mainstay on the pitching staff two years ago, showed up in very creditable form. Courteau, a freshman, played a good game at short and Mulchy at third did well.

For the Purple, Richmond at first played superb ball. Besides putting out ten men, he brought in two runs. Bok pitched a good game and also brought in a run. Monjo's homer was a feature of the game.

The box score follows:

SENIOR BALL COMMITTEE HARD AT WORK

The committee in charge of this year's Senior Ball, which will be held in the Soper Gymnasium, Friday evening, June 15, in attempting to make this ball the best of its kind, is planning to have decorations in the gym for the event. In former years no decorations were used in connection with the Senior Ball because it was felt that the effort was not worth the effect. However, the present committee, consisting of DeWitt, chairman, Willard, and Fitzgerald, say that the gym will have a Prom-like appearance.

Tige Jewett's Cornell orchestra will play from 11 Friday evening until 6 Saturday morning. One of the features in connection with the ball will be the elaborate buffet supper which will be served in Commons Hall about 1 o'clock. The committee has taken special pains to make arrangements for an exceptionally good buffet supper. Tickets which are now on sale, at four dollars, by any member of the committee, will sell for five dollars at the door on June 15th. It is reported that already an unusually large number have been sold.

EXECUTIVE COUNCIL HOLDS MEETING

Managers for Next Year Appointed—Athletic Schedules Approved

The Executive Council met in Siliman Hall last Wednesday evening. The chief business of the meeting was the election of managers of Musical Clubs, Charlatans, and Debate, and the approval of schedules.

Philip E. Robinson, '25, Chi Psi, of Scranton, Pa., was elected Assistant Manager of Musical Clubs. Richmond E. Thompson, '25, received the second nomination. Arthur T. Jones, '24, was elected Manager.

C. Clayton Scott, '25, Psi Upsilon, was elected Assistant Manager of Charlatans. Joseph C. Valentine received the second nomination. Neal E. McHargue was elected Manager.

For Assistant Manager of Debate, Thomas Kirby, '26, was elected. C. Douglas Chretien received the second nomination. John P. Gualtieri, '25, was elected Manager.

Louis George, Manager of Hockey, submitted a report showing receipts of $1856, and expenditures of $2973 during the past season. William G. Lewi's report showing expenditures of $357 for the past debate season was also accepted. J. Q. Howe reported expenditures of $214 for freshman hockey.

William W. Johnson, Manager of Basketball, asked for a gross appropriation of $1620, making a net one of $1055. It was granted.

Arthur Jones asked for an advance appropriation of $150 for the Musical Clubs. At this time the Council approved of the efforts that are being made to obtain the admission of Hamilton to the Intercollegiate Musical Corporation.

Donald Jones had approved a schedule of six games of freshman baseball. The Council voted its appreciation of the work of this year's fencing team, and of Coach Gelas in training it.

It was resolved not to seek admission for Hamilton into the New York State Collegiate Lawn Tennis Association, although an offer of admission has been made. Valentine Alison received approval for a schedule of six soccer games next fall, and Charles Brainard had three cross-country meets approved.

A rule was passed making only letter men eligible to vote for captain in a major sport. In minor sports only men who have won full numerals will vote.

Another important regulation was

HAMILTON ENTERS MUSICAL COUNCIL

Last Saturday Wallace B. Johnson, '15, and Leslie E. Moore, '24, represented Hamilton at the meeting of representatives of college glee clubs in New York State. Colgate, Syracuse, Rochester, and Union were also represented at the conference. At this meeting was formed the Intercollegiate Music Council of New York, of which Prof. Schauffler of Syracuse was elected president, Rev. Mr. Clauson of Syracuse was elected vice-president, and Prof. Bryson of Syracuse was elected secretary-treasurer. These gentlemen were all elected in absentia. Moore was elected to the board of directors of the council and will represent Hamilton in this capacity for the coming year.

A contest preliminary to the big one in Carnegie Hall was planned for the third Saturday in February. It will be held in Syracuse, and will be subject to all the rules and regulations of the Carnegie Hall contest. This will be the first time that Hamilton has entered her Glee Club in such a contest, and stands a good chance of winning the Syracuse contest.

LATIN CLUB PLAY MAKES BIG HIT

"Mostellaria" Presented by the Latin Players at Smith and on Hill—Receives Much Commendation —Credit Due to Dr. Chase

Large and enthusiastic audiences witnessed the two performances given by the Latin Club of the "Mostellaria" of Plautus, during the last week. The play was presented at Smith College on Monday, and in the Soper Gymnasium on Friday evening. Although the play was given in Latin, there was no difficulty in following the action. A twelve page libretto was issued, which gave a complete synopsis of the play. The action was good throughout and the scenery, though simple, was effective.

A feature of the program was the incidental music. This music was played behind the scenes by two clarinets and a flute, according to an arrangement by Frederic DeForest Allen of Harvard, at the same time that the "Tibicien" or "dummy flute" was on the stage. The effect was very striking, particularly the Delphic Hymn to Apollo.

The acting of the entire cast was commendable, but particular credit is due to F. H. Wood for his excellent interpretation of the leading part of Tranio. He displayed unusual talent in acting the part of the cringing, but smart, slave. The acting of Chastney in the part of the old father, of Thomas as the young courtesan, and of Gualtieri as Scapha, all deserve great credit.

The Northampton performance was given Monday evening before a crowd that completely filled the Students' Building. Although it was the Monday following Prom, the play was given a warm reception by the Smith students and professors. The play was frequently held up by applause, sometimes in unexpected parts. This was particularly true when Scapha, while arranging the dress of Philematium, held two safety pins in her mouth.

COLGATE TRACK MEN OUTPOINT HAMILTON

Maroon Has Little Difficulty in Taking Meet—Buff and Blue Does Well in Track Events—Three College Records Broken

SCORE 81-45

The Buff and Blue track team suffered its first defeat in two seasons when the Colgate team trimmed Hamilton 81-45 at Clinton last Saturday. An exceptionally large crowd witnessed the sensational meet in which three college records were broken. Colgate had the edge on Hamilton in the field events, but in the track events both teams were fairly evenly matched. Patterson of Colgate and Alison created a sensation in the 100-yard dash in which they both came in a tie, covering the distance in 10 seconds flat. This reduced the college record by a fifth of a second. Alison did stellar work in addition to his record breaking time in the 100. He took first in the quarter mile and second in the 220. Watson Thompson hit his usual stride and came in first in both the mile and the half mile with a good lead. Art Warren broke the college record for the javelin throw, when he put it 149 feet, 2 inches, thus smashing his former record of 147 feet, 5 inches. Thompson broke the college record he set last year in the mile by one-eighth of a second.

Warren's first in the javelin and McGiffin's winning discus throw of 114 feet, 6½ inches, constituted the principal field events in which the Maroon failed to carry away the honors.

Coach Carroll expressed the opinion that Hamilton did better than he had expected. This week the track team will be put through its final paces for the last meet of the season with Union at Clinton this Saturday.

The summary:

Is Hamilton Losing Its Ideals?

Hamilton College has always been noted for the excellent public speakers that it has turned out. Hamilton has gained much of its splendid scholastic reputation through its Public Speaking Department. Yet, if present signs are of any importance, the fine ideals that Hamilton men have always maintained in their work in public speaking are beginning to decline, and the wonderful work that has been done in this department is also losing its vigor and vitality.

The recent announcement of the final Clark Prize contestants was indeed a shock to those interested in the welfare of the college traditions in oratory. Out of a Senior Class of about fifty, all eligible to write for K. P., only eight men took the time and effort to write essays. Out of this number only three were judged worthy of being spoken in that famous contest. This is indeed one of the most lamentable things that has occurred in college for some time. Hamilton can very well do without hazing, it can do very well without horsing, and other frivolous and senseless customs, but when it comes to one of the real traditions of the college, and one of the highest honors that the college can bestow upon its sons, then it is indeed time to call a stop.

Another little incident was the Junior Prize Stab for the speakers in the McKinney contest. Out of twelve men appointed to speak, only six men showed enough interest to appear.

What seems to be the cause for this decline in the interest in the real college activities? Is it a general attitude of disregard for anything that savors of work? Is it a growing lack of interest in things worth while? It might be any one of these reasons, but the real one seems to be downright laziness.

If Hamilton wishes to maintain its present high standing in the forensic world, and keep up its reputation for producing college men that can clearly express their views, the undergraduates must come out of their lethargy and revive the interest in these contests. Mr. Stanley B. Houck, National President of Delta Sigma Rho, recently stated that he knew of no other college in the country that had so fine a public speaking course as Hamilton.

Hamilton men are proud of this record and everyone deep down in his heart wishes to maintain it. But this cannot be done unless the interest in these fine old contests is kept up. The subjects for next year's contests are already selected. It is not too early to start work now. Let's put on a K. P. contests next year that will be worthy of all the old traditions, and will show the alumni that the younger generation is not all composed of tea-hounds!

The Y. M. C. A.

Yes, there is at Hamilton a branch of the Young Men's Christian Association, although to the casual observer around college, very little evidence can be seen of it. We are very much aware of the presence of the Y. M. in the fall just after college re-opens, when a drive for new members is made. We also hear it mentioned about once a week during the winter months when a moving picture is presented in Commons by the Y. They also have a reception in the Fall for the purpose of letting men in college become acquainted with one another. But aside from these superficial activities, what influence does the Y. M. C. A. have on the religious and social side of undergraduate life here at Hamilton?

It is indeed sad to say that Hamilton College, which has always been classed as distinctly a Christian college, is entirely lacking in a vitalizing and active Christian influence in the undergraduate life.

The Y. M. C. A. has the use of Silliman Hall, and the only thing for which the building seems to be of use is for the rooming house of the officers of the Y. Of course there are occasional meetings of various bodies held there, and the Bible Classes have the use of the public rooms on Sunday.

The Y. M. C. A. collects dues each year from its members, and yet does very little during the year to justify a membership fee. We need a live organization here at Hamilton that will better serve the religious and social side of college life. The Y. M. could provide interesting discussions upon religious questions, it could hold open forums, and it could be the center of undergraduate life—but it is not!

There used to be a time when the Y. M. didn't bring rather old movies to the Hill, but organized an interesting undergraduate show. Mr. Johnson showed what can be done along that line the other day.

No one wishes to detract from the work that is done by the Y. M. C. A. It deserves credit for what it does accomplish; but it is indeed lacking in many departments. The Y. M. C. A. should be the logical center of the religious side of the college. It should foster the Christian ideals in an active sort of way, and in all it should be a live, radiating and powerful influence in the life and thought of the student.

The work done by the Y. M. C. A. at Hamilton can be broadened out, and should become more active. Let us have a live, real, active Y. M. C. A. here on the Hill, rather than a passive movie exhibitor.

Maroon Hands Hamilton a Severe Drubbing—Team Plays Ragged Game—Hatch Scores Lone Tally

SCORE 14-1

Colgate had little difficulty in winning her fourth consecutive victory last Monday, defeating Hamilton by the very one-sided score of 14-1. Amey, a newcomer to the Maroon pitching staff, succeeded in keeping his opponents guessing throughout the game, allowing only six hits, and was backed up by a team that played hard, fast ball in the field, and hit Warren frequently and opportunely. Hamilton was obviously outclassed almost from the start, unable to bunch her hits, and playing a ragged game in the field.

Colgate began her attack in the second inning, scoring two runs. In the third, the entire team more than batted around, nine men crossing the plate. Six hits, four errors, and a base on balls gained the tallies. Her other two runs were added in the fifth and eighth innings.

Hamilton's lone score was made in the ninth. Hatch opened the inning with a neat single, followed by Schults' fly, out to center field. Pottle clouted out a double, advancing Hatch to third. Morris made first, and sent Jack home on a fielder's choice, in which Pottle was put out at third.

The score:

Carpe Diem

Don't the Seniors look cute nowadays? One thing is evident, though, the Senior Class is wet enough as it is without advertising the fact by wearing sailor suits.

Prex was quite out of sorts the other morning, but by noon he was very much Mollyfied.

Another unsolvable mystery has been found. No one yet has been able to fathom the intricacies of the present cut system.

If the present weather keeps up a water polo team might well be added to the list of minor sports. The team could hold practice in the pool in front of the Sammie Eells' shack.

The Old Grad says: "When I was in college K. P. used to be the big thing, but nowadays it seems to be the Senior Ball.

The famous battle of Waterville is going to be fought out between Phil Dowdell and Greg Tryon in the near future.

Isn't it remarkable how attentive men are in class just about this time of the year?

"He who hesitates is lost," this is only too true when following Rocks and the honorable Georgie Peh-hrine on a field trip.

The baseball team seems to be doing wonderfully well as usual between the periods of floods. Looks like another banner year in athletics.

The prize winner of the long distance chapel record will be announced at an early date. It was thought that the winner could have been announced long ago, and Carpe was almost ready to extend condolations to Brownie, but since then, one or two other contestants have come to the front. The contest is growing hot, and the attendants at the races in the morning are hereby warned to prepare for an extra sleep in the near future.

Art Warren was recently elected President of the Amalgamated Association of Hair Dressers.

Wonder how it would strike Art Jones to stay around college awhile? He is the champion weak-ender of the Hill.

The only way that the Seniors will be able to win the class sing will be to keep their mouths shut and give the "Song Without Words."

* * *

Carl Riedel seems to be quite taken with the big town of Brooklyn. Hope he doesn't get too much a-noyed.

From the way that the mail is coming on the Hill lately, it looks like the old Burleson regime is back in again.

Alumni News

Edited by Prof. W. H. Squires, '88

—Rev. Edward J. Humeston, '99, pastor of the Presbyterian Church at Huntington, L. I., takes charge of the Bible work in the Stony Brook School for Boys.

—Barton D. Miller, '19, son of Attorney Curtis B. Miller, '89, has just completed his law course at Columbia Law School and plans to practice his profession in Utica.

—William H. Farrand, '22, left for Roumania in April under contract to serve the Standard Oil Company for three years in that country. His headquarters for the next six months will be in Bucharest.

—Rev. Dr. David E. Breed, '67, has lately retired from his professorship in Western Theological Seminary, Pittsburgh, and has made his home in Hollywood, Calif. Mrs. Breed died April 5th, and funeral services were held in Grand Rapids, Mich., where interment took place.

—Rev. George H. Allen, Jr., '08, pastor of the Fredonia Presbyterian Church, Fredonia, N. Y., has just accepted a unanimous call to the Presbyterian Church at Bath, N. Y., and will begin his services there the first Sunday in July. For five years Mr. Allen was pastor of the Brockport Presbyterian Church. He resigned from this pastorate to enter the War as a Y. M. C. A. worker. Rev. Emory D. Webster, '02, followed Allen at Brockport and is still in that pastorate.

—Principal Edward H. Lomber, '03, head of the Canandaigua Academy, has been chosen President of a Teachers' Association lately formed in Canandaigua for the purpose of the general betterment of the schools and teachers. It was announced at this meeting that Syracuse University would conduct "extension courses" for which college credit would be given. This in absentia study is enlarging the zone of Syracuse influence while stimulating our public school teachers to engage in progressive scholastic effort while performing school duties.

—Hon. Albert R. Kessinger, '88, has been spending the last five months in South America on a business trip. He expects to be home in time for the 35th reunion of his class at commencement. It will be remembered that Kessinger has devoted his time since leaving college to newspaper work on the Rome Sentinel, but has had time to devote to the duties of the office of Mayor of Rome, postmaster of Rome, and was member of the Oneida County Court House Commission that built the Utica million dollar Court House without the loss of a penny. Hon. Henry J. Cookinham, '67, was President of the Commission, and James P. Olney, '79, was a vigorous associate.

—William F. Dowling, '04, has lately announced his candidacy for the Justiceship in the Supreme Court in the Fifth Judicial District. Dowling is an admirable candidate of high judicial character and is fortified by a reputation in the legal profession that appeals irresistibly to the common people. He has proven himself a great trial lawyer, a stout defender of clean politics and has made for himself a place in the community that marks him as an outstanding man. While in college, Dowling gave promise of a successful future. He was profound in thought, accurate in method and never left a piece of work till it had been thoroughly and well done. Possessed of a kind and attractive personality, high-minded and strictly fair, Dowling would be an honor to the bench and the champion of all that is noblest and best in his profession. We hope the Office secures him!

—Dewey J. Carter, '04, has been for some time Editor of The Dairymen's League News, a weekly paper of 110,000 issue. This is the most important of the agricultural papers and is the advocate of the 70,000 milk producers who have New York City as the center of their operations. This last year their milk and milk products sales have amounted to nearly $100,000,000. Carter has had the grave responsibility of explaining all the policies of the managers of the Dairymen's League Cooperative Association to the discontented farmers and has done it with great skill and satisfaction. Designing lawyers have attempted to fatten themselves by splitting the milk producers into Poolers and Non-poolers, thus creating a war between the farmers that has menaced their own financial existence, but Carter has fought this combination with such tact and judgment that he has neutralized the sinister influence of this dollar-craving group and now gives fair promise of finally routing the entire combination. Certainly he is proving himself the man of the hour in this unfortunate war between the farmers. He has lately moved his Editorial Offices to New York City, where he can better carry on his campaign for the milk producers of the state.

FRESHMEN DROP TWO GAMES

U. F. A. Takes Frosh into Camp by 11 to 0 Score—Manlius Trounces Yearlings 10 to 3

After losing three straight games, the Utica Free Academy baseball team defeated the Hamilton freshmen last Monday on Steuben Field 11 to 0. Weber held the Buff and Blue team to only three hits and fanned thirteen men. The U. F. A. team made no errors.

Van Vleet, who pitched for Hamilton, allowed seventeen hits. Hamilton's three hits were made by Hutchens, Pierce, and Brush.

St. John's School of Manlius defeated the Hamilton freshmen last Friday afternoon at Clinton in a game which started with tight playing and a close score. In the sixth inning, however, Manlius secured three runs to which she added five in the ninth, resulting in a 10 to 3 victory for her.

Nicholson walked very few men, but allowed thirteen hits. Courteau, Brush, and Payne were in good form. Hanson, the former Syracuse Central High School star, played a good game for Manlius.

TENNIS TEAM BREAKS EVEN WITH ROCHESTER

In the tennis matches with Rochester last Saturday afternoon at Clinton, Fitzgerald and Price won their singles, and Ogilvie and Price won their doubles matches, making three matches won for each team.

Fitzgerald won his first set against Milliman 8-6, the first game going to deuce eight times. Milliman easily took the next 6-1 with only one deuce game. Milliman then started the next with a love set, but Fitzgerald finally took the set 6-4, winning the match.

Price then took his first set against Young 6-3, and the second 6-1 with only seven deuce games. Kaufman of Rochester defeated Bradley, 8-6 and 6-1.

Van Leer and Young nosed out their first set against Ogilvie and Price 6-4 after a hard fight. The next set was a battle for blood which Price and Ogilvie won 9-7 with all but six games going to deuce. Price and Ogilvie took the last, 6-4.

Milliman and Kaufman beat Fitzgerald and Bradley 6-3 7-5, and Van Leer beat Ogilvie 6-3, 6-3.

ment of Latin at Smith, in commenting upon the performance, said, "We were all greatly pleased with the Mostellaria. The play proved that Latin can be as alive and as interesting as any modern language." The departments of Latin from Mt. Holyoke College and Amherst, as well as many other professors from nearby colleges, attended the performance.

A fair-sized but interested crowd witnessed the Friday evening performance in the Soper Gym. Many out of town guests were present, including professors from Colgate, Syracuse, Cornell, and Vassar.

After the performance a reception was held at the Chi Psi Lodge for the cast and a few guests. Robert Chastney, '23, President of the Latin Club, presented flowers to Mrs. Chase and small gifts to Dr. Chase and to Prof. Durham as tokens of the cast's appreciation for the untiring work that they had done in the producing of the Mostellaria.

The cast was as follows:

Tranio, F. H. Wood; Grumio, J. C. Toaz; Philolaches, J. B. Burke; Philematium, Harold Thomas; Scapha, J. P. Gualtieri; Callidamates, J. W. Chase; Delphium, J. C. Toaz; Sphaerio, Harold Thomas; Theopropides, R. H. Chastney; Mysargyrides, J. W Chase; Simo, J. P. Gualtieri; Phaniscus, J. C. Toaz; Pinacium, J. B. Burke; Tibicien, A. C.
